3. Defendants Ms. Hajek, Mr. Wadyka and Mr. Lewin claim in their motion for an enlargement of time to file a responsive pleading in this matter that the individual Defendants had still not been properly served. Contrary to this assertion, service was attempted by a professional process server on May 16, 2007 and individual defendants refused to accept service.

4. Said Process Server was told that service had to be made on Defendants Registered Agent, Company Services Corporation, which is located in Richmond Virginia.

5. Plaintiffs Catherine and Richard Snyder, had to incur the cost of hiring a process server located in Richmond Virginia, to serve summons on Defendants registered agents.

6. Plaintiffs are representing themselves pro se in the above civil action, Plaintiffs are not attorneys, nor do they possess any legal background.

7. Plaintiffs are making a sincere effort to educate themselves as to the Federal Civil Rules of Procedure, as well as the legal issues surrounding this case.

8. All legal research, required filings, clerical duties, etc. relating to Civil Case 1:07cv469, are primarily being done by Catherine Snyder.

9. Defendants filed their motion to dismiss on the same day their answer was due in court, June 11, 2007.

10. On June 25, 2007 Plaintiffs were notified that a hearing for Defendants motion to dismiss was set for Friday, July 27, 2007. On June 25, 2007 Defendants Counsel also notified Plaintiffs that any opposition to said motion to dismiss had to be filed within 20 days. Per Defendants Counsel's notification, the date set for Plaintiffs opposition to Defendant's motion to dismiss is set for July 15, 2007.

11. This motion is not made for purposes of improperly delaying this action, and the granting of this motion would not unfairly benefit to the movements or prejudice at the defendants.
